

Transformation Prayer Ministry

Next Steps

WHY CONTINUE WITH TPM?

If you have experienced 2 – 3 TPM sessions, it is a good time to think about your journey and where you would like to go from here. Not everyone has the same experience with TPM. Do you see yourself in one of the narratives of three Mentees below?

1. You had great results in your TPM sessions as a Mentee. You now have God's perspective, His truth, in areas where before you had faulty beliefs or had a limited perspective. You might be experiencing the peace of Christ in areas where you have been plagued for years with anxiety and fear. Maybe long-held anger is no longer present. You might be so grateful at the transformation in your life that you wonder why on earth you would need to continue doing TPM?
2. You have had multiple sessions of TPM, and it "appears" that nothing at all has shifted. You might even tell a friend, "This doesn't work for me. I'm not doing any more sessions."
3. You might be a Mentee, who after having an encounter with the Lord when He persuaded your heart of His perspective, now wants to understand everything about the principles, purpose, and process of TPM so that you can begin a lifestyle of utilizing this spiritual discipline as a tool to cooperate with God.

No matter which Mentee you identify with the most, you are encouraged to consider learning more about Transformation Prayer Ministry so you can either...

1. understand the benefit of utilizing TPM as a lifestyle,
2. make a better-informed decision about whether to continue with TPM sessions, or
3. take the next step to begin learning everything you can about the purpose, principles, and process of TPM so you can continue benefiting from allowing the Lord to refine your faith by renewing your mind, which will lead to more effortless transformation.

WORTH REMEMBERING

- ◇ Emotions are your friends. Nothing or nobody can make you feel anything because you feel whatever you believe. The pain is not the problem, and it shouldn't be our goal to get rid of it. Rather the pain exposes your need for God's perspective.
- ◇ Anytime you are struggling to obey God, you are in need of God's perspective.

- ◇ Whenever you are having to try hard to “do” the fruit of the Spirit”, you are in need of God’s perspective. After all, it is His fruit. When you know the truth in your heart, the fruit will effortlessly flow.
- ◇ When your head knows the truth, but it doesn’t FEEL true in your heart, you are in need of God’s perspective. You can memorize lots of scripture and you should, but it takes the Holy Spirit to persuade your heart that it is true.
- ◇ When you are tired of holding on to frustration or anger, you are in need of God’s perspective.
- ◇ If you find yourself, like Paul, doing the very things you don’t want to do, you are in need of God’s perspective. (Romans 7:15)

If you are ready to learn how to intentionally cooperate with God in his refining process so that His Spirit may guide you into all truth in order to gain God’s perspective, check out “Options or Next Steps”.
